📖 Plant Names & Life Cycles: Vocabulary Picture Cards (Level 2)

Name: _____

Cut on the dashed lines. Use the cards to match, sort, or quiz a partner.

Scientific name

A two-word Latin name used by scientists everywhere (genus + species).

Genus

The first word of a scientific name. It starts with a capital letter.

Species

The second word of a scientific name. It starts with a lowercase letter.

Simple flower

A single flower with petals around the center, like a tulip.

Tube flower

A flower whose petals join into a tube, like a snapdragon or fuchsia.

Composite flower

A flower head made of many tiny flowers, like a sunflower or daisy.

Annual

A plant that grows, flowers, makes seed and dies in one growing season.

Biennial

A plant that grows leaves the first year and flowers and makes seed the second year.

Perennial

A plant that lives more than two years.