Words to Know

Words to Know

Human rights

Rights every person has, like life, freedom and fair treatment, no matter who they are.

Genocide

Trying to destroy a whole group of people because of their religion, race or nationality (UN, 1948).

Prejudice

An unfair opinion about a group of people, formed without knowing them.

Holocaust

The murder of about 6 million Jewish people, plus millions of others, by Nazi Germany (1933-1945).
