📉 Day 11: Culture of the 1930s: Depression Stations: Daily Notes

US History · Unit 10 · Level 3 (closer to the class work) · The Great Depression

Name: _____

🎯 Today: How music, letters, movies and art reflected the Depression.

🔁 Warm-up (5-minute review)

1. A 1930 painting shows a farmer with a pitchfork next to a woman. It is called…

_____

Key terms: Columbia River · Grand Coulee Dam · Land · letters · Temple

📝 Guided notes

1. Woody Guthrie sang about Dust Bowl life and wrote “This Land Is Your _____.”
2. In 1941 Guthrie wrote songs about the _____ and the Grand Coulee Dam.
3. The _____ in Washington brought jobs, water for farms and electricity.
4. Millions of people wrote _____ to FDR and Eleanor Roosevelt asking for help.
5. Movies like Snow White and stars like Shirley _____ gave people hope.
6. Grant Wood painted American _____ in 1930.
7. The Grand Coulee Dam was built from 1933 to _____ as a New Deal project.

✍️ Analyze

1. Why were happy movies and characters popular during the Depression?

_____

_____

_____

🎟️ Exit ticket

1. The Grand Coulee Dam is in…

A. Arizona | B. New York | C. Washington State

2. Why were characters like Snow White, Orphan Annie and Shirley Temple popular during the Great Depression?

_____

_____