💡 Day 3: Montesquieu, Voltaire and Rousseau: Daily Notes · ANSWER KEY

World History · Unit 11 · Level 3 (closer to the class work) · The Enlightenment

Name: _____

🎯 Today: More Enlightenment ideas about freedom and government.

🔁 Warm-up (5-minute review)

1. Splitting power so no one has too much is called…
separation of powers

Key terms: Montesquieu · Rousseau · salons · Voltaire · Wollstonecraft

📝 Guided notes

1. Montesquieu wanted power split into three branches.
2. Voltaire fought for freedom of speech and religion.
3. Rousseau said government should follow the will of the people.
4. Mary Wollstonecraft said women deserve equal education.
5. These ideas spread through books and salons (meetings).
6. The three branches are legislative, executive and judicial.
7. Many Enlightenment ideas went into the U.S. Constitution.

✍️ Analyze

1. Which Enlightenment idea do you see in the U.S. today?
Three branches, free speech, freedom of religion, rights, elections.

🎟️ Exit ticket

1. Montesquieu wanted government split into…

A. two cakes | B. islands | C. three branches

2. Match Montesquieu, Voltaire, Rousseau and Wollstonecraft to their main idea.
Montesquieu-separation of powers; Voltaire-free speech/religion; Rousseau-social contract/will of the people; Wollstonecraft-women's rights/education.

🔑 Key written by our team, please check.