👩‍🏫 Staff Guide · Health · Unit 2 Food & Nutrition (Level 3)

Level 3 = students who can work close to the gen ed lesson. No slide decks: students follow Mr. Finstuen's lesson with Level 3 readings and guided notes (both have a 🔊 read-aloud copy online).

1. How the pieces line up

Gen ed lesson	Level 3 piece
Nutrient Notes; Nutrition Vocabulary; Macro and Micronutrients; Nutrients Research Worksheet	Reading paragraphs 1-2; notes part A (nutrient table, fats)
Digestive system; Healthy Eating Plate Interactive; Design A Healthy Plate	Reading paragraph 3; notes part B (draw and label the plate)
Whole Foods & Farm to Fork; Sugar; Nutrition Labels; Meal Planning	Reading paragraphs 4-5; notes part C (sugar math, labels, plan a dinner)
Food documentary questions	Do his questions with a partner; staff pauses the video at each answer

2. Supports built in

- Reading + notes have a 🔊 read-aloud copy online
- Sugar math has a worked example first; calculator OK
- Plate diagram can be drawn or cut-and-glued

3. What to grade

- Notes stand in for Nutrient Notes and the Nutrients Research Worksheet
- Quick check: score, then scale to class points
- Modified grading only as the IEP allows. Check with the case manager.

4. Who to ask

- Mr. Driver (SLE): changes and IEP questions.
- Facts we could not confirm say “check with Mr. Finstuen”.

🚧 Under construction (check with Mr. Finstuen)

- Nutrient Notes Kami pages + Nutrients Research Worksheet: Turned in through an outside tool (Kami), so the pages are not in the export. Our notes follow his calendar topics.
- Digestive system coloring sheet (12 parts): Not in the export. We use a public-domain labeled diagram instead.
- Food documentary + Secrets of Your Gut excerpts: Videos shown in class; titles and times are not in the export.

💗 Sensitive topic note

Food can be a hard topic. Some students live with food insecurity, and some have a difficult relationship with food or eating. Mr. Finstuen's unit opens by saying so. Never comment on what or how much a student eats, and never ask students to log what they eat. Meal plans can use any family or pretend menu. If you worry about a student's eating, tell Mr. Driver and the school counselor.
