👩‍🏫 Staff Guide · World History · Unit 3 Renaissance: new pieces

New pieces for Levels 1, 2 and 3. L1 = about 2nd-grade reading with emoji and pictures. L2 = about 3rd-grade reading. L3 = close to the class work (guided notes and readings, no slide decks). Every lesson opens with the 5-minute review in the class plan.

1. What each piece goes with

Class lesson / piece	Our files	Notes
Medieval vs. Renaissance web notes (incl. the modified half)	L1/L2/L3 guided notes + keys + read-aloud pages	Fills our 🚧 item “Medieval vs. Renaissance art note sheet.” Compares a Cimabue Madonna with the Mona Lisa.
Leonardo-Michelangelo chart + reading + the two class videos	L1/L2/L3 reading + keys + read-aloud pages; L1/L2/L3 chart + keys	Reading written by our team (not the class handout). Chart rows match the class chart.
Renaissance Men Quiz (10 true/false + 1)	L1 (6 T/F), L2 (10 T/F), L3 (10 T/F with fix-it + 1) + keys	Fills our 🚧 item “Renaissance quiz.”
School of Athens Quiz (10)	L1 (5), L2 (8), L3 (10) + keys	No “all of the options” answers; L3 uses 2 short answers instead.
Renaissance Study Guide	L1/L2/L3 study guide + keys + read-aloud pages	Same terms and artists as the class guide, in our words.
Renaissance Gallery Walk (8 stations)	L1 (4 artworks), L2 (6), L3 (all 8) + keys	Descriptions on our sheets are our own short versions. See the picture note below.
Mimic a Masterpiece	L1/L2/L3 project sheet (3-row rubric, 9 points)	Same 4 masterpieces as the class. No key (it is a project).
Review before the quiz	L1/L2/L3 Renaissance Artists game	4-artist match + 10 questions; answers shuffle.

2. Supports built in

- L1: picture choices, read aloud, 2 choices on most items.
- L2: word banks, 3 choices, no 'all of the above.'
- L3: class questions, fewer games, fix-the-false.
- Read-aloud pages for the notes, reading and study guide.

3. What to grade

- Quizzes: 1 point each; scale to class points.
- Gallery walk: complete = full credit.
- Mimic a Masterpiece: rubric out of 9; scale to the class rubric (out of 15).
- These are modifications. Modified grading only as the IEP allows. Check with the case manager.

4. Who to ask

- The SLE teacher: changes and IEP questions.
- Facts we could not confirm say “check with the class teacher”.

Picture note

- Our sheets show no pictures of David or The Birth of Venus (nude figures). L3 lists them with a 'look at the class station card' box. The Creation of Adam is cropped to the two hands. Ask the World History teacher if those stations need a different plan.

Leonardo and Michelangelo

Leonardo da Vinci was born in 1452 near Florence, Italy. As a teenager he learned to paint in the workshop of the artist Verrocchio. He was curious about everything: plants, water, birds and the human body.

Leonardo painted The Last Supper on a wall in Milan and the Mona Lisa, a portrait of Lisa del Giocondo. He blended colors softly, with no hard lines. This is called sfumato.

Leonardo's notebooks hold more than 7,000 surviving pages. He sketched flying machines (he thought they should copy a bat's wings), an armored tank and weapons, and drew some of the most accurate pictures of human anatomy of his time. He wrote in mirror writing, from right to left.

Leonardo worked for many patrons: the Duke of Milan, the city of Florence and, at the end of his life, King Francis I of France.

Michelangelo Buonarroti was born in 1475. As a teenager he studied in Florence and lived in the household of Lorenzo de' Medici, the city's most powerful patron. He saw himself as a sculptor first. His Pietà (Mary holding Jesus) made him famous at about 24, and his marble David, about 17 feet tall, became a symbol of Florence.

Pope Julius II hired Michelangelo to paint the Sistine Chapel ceiling, a huge fresco. The two argued about money and time, but Michelangelo finished in 1512. Later he painted The Last Judgment and designed the dome of St. Peter's Basilica.

Both men studied the human body closely, worked for powerful patrons and were shaped by the Church and by classical ideas. Because they mastered art, science and engineering, both are called Renaissance men.

🎨 The Renaissance: Reading

World History · Unit 3 · Level 3 (closer to the class work) · goes with the Italy Summary, Renaissance Art slides and Crash Course video sheet

Name: _____

The Renaissance: A Rebirth of Ideas

The Renaissance (French for 'rebirth') was a period from about 1350 to 1600 when Europeans renewed their interest in the art and learning of ancient Greece and Rome. It began in the city-states of northern Italy, such as Florence, Venice and Milan.

Italy had several advantages. Its cities were wealthy from Mediterranean trade, and rich families like the Medici of Florence became patrons, paying artists and scholars. Roman ruins were all around. Trade with the Muslim world and scholars fleeing Constantinople after 1453 brought ancient Greek texts back to Europe.

Renaissance thinkers were called humanists. They studied history, poetry, philosophy and the classics, and they believed people could achieve great things in this world, not only in the afterlife. The ideal 'Renaissance man' was skilled in many areas, from art and science to music and sports.

Artists used new techniques. Perspective used lines and a vanishing point to make flat paintings look three-dimensional. Fresco was painting on wet plaster. Sfumato blended colors softly so no outlines show. Leonardo da Vinci painted the Mona Lisa and The Last Supper and filled notebooks with inventions. Michelangelo spent four years painting the Sistine Chapel ceiling. Raphael's School of Athens shows Plato and Aristotle surrounded by philosophers.

Around 1450, Johannes Gutenberg developed a printing press with movable type. Books became faster and cheaper to make, more people learned to read, and Renaissance ideas spread across Europe. In his Crash Course video, John Green argues that the Renaissance mostly mattered to rich people and that many ordinary people did not experience it.
