US History · Unit 5 · Level 2 (modified)

Civil Rights at the Turn of the Century

TODAY'S PLAN

- ⛓️ From slavery to Reconstruction
- 🚫 Jim Crow and segregation
- ⚖️ Plessy v. Ferguson (1896)
- 🗣️ Wells, Washington, Du Bois and the NAACP

Review · 5 minutes

Quick Review

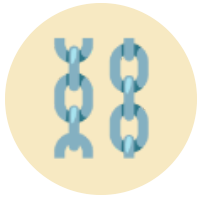

✊ Progressives used the government to fix problems.

🕵️ Muckrakers exposed unfair treatment.

🤔 Quick think: did Progressive reforms help everyone equally?

Words to Know

Words to Know

Slavery

A system where people were owned and forced to work. It ended in 1865 (13th Amendment).

Jim Crow laws

Laws in the South that kept Black and white people apart and took away rights.

Segregation

Separating people by race in schools, trains, restaurants and more.

Plessy v. Ferguson

An 1896 Supreme Court case that said “separate but equal” was legal.

Words to Know

More Words to Know

🗳️ Voting rights: Black men could vote by law, but tests and taxes were used to stop them.

📰 Ida B. Wells: A Black journalist who wrote the truth about racist violence and fought for justice.

🏫 Booker T. Washington: A leader who started Tuskegee Institute and said Black Americans should build job skills first.

🎓 W.E.B. Du Bois: A leader who said Black Americans should demand full equal rights now. He helped start the NAACP.

Learn

After Slavery

The 13th Amendment (1865) ended slavery.

The 14th gave citizenship and the 15th let Black men vote.

During Reconstruction Black men were elected to Congress.

Learn

Black Codes and Jim Crow

When Reconstruction ended (1877), Southern states passed Jim Crow laws.

Segregation separated schools, trains, parks and water fountains.

Black schools got much less money.

Learn

Ways Voting Was Blocked

Poll tax
pay to vote

Literacy test
unfair reading tests

Grandfather clause
only if grandpa voted

Threats
violence and fear

🃏 Check 1 of 4

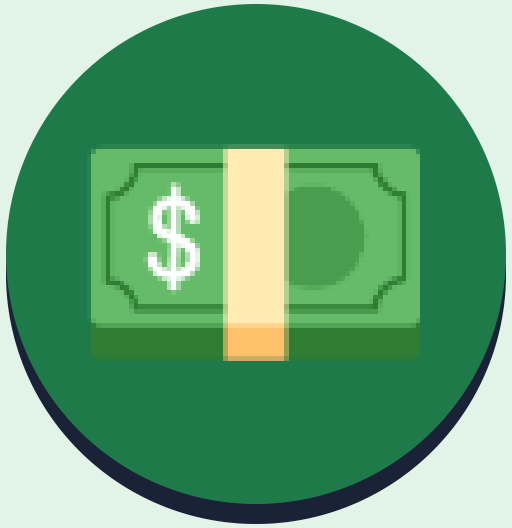

A poll tax made people…

Hold up 1, 2, or 3:

1️⃣ Vote twice

2️⃣ Pay money to vote

3️⃣ Skip school

Pay money to vote

Many poor voters could not pay.

Learn

Plessy v. Ferguson (1896)

Homer Plessy sat in a “whites only” train car to test the law.

The Supreme Court said “separate but equal” was legal.

It stayed law until Brown v. Board (1954).

🃏 Check 2 of 4

What did Plessy v. Ferguson decide?

Hold up 1, 2, or 3:

1️⃣ Segregation was illegal

2️⃣ Women could vote

3️⃣ Segregation was legal if “equal”

✅ Answer · Card 2 of 4

Segregation was legal if “equal”

“Separate but equal.”

Learn

Ida B. Wells

Ida B. Wells was a journalist in Memphis.

She investigated and reported mob murders of Black men, called lynching.

She was threatened and her newspaper was destroyed, but she kept writing.

Compare

Two Paths

🏫

Washington

Booker T. Washington
Tuskegee Institute (1881)
learn job skills first earn respect slowly

🎓

Du Bois

W.E.B. Du Bois
first Black Harvard PhD
demand equal rights now
Niagara Movement, NAACP

🃏 Check 3 of 4

Which leader wanted to demand full rights immediately?

Hold up 1, 2, or 3:

1️⃣ W.E.B. Du Bois

2️⃣ Booker T. Washington

3️⃣ Homer Plessy

✅ Answer · Card 3 of 4

W.E.B. Du Bois

Du Bois disagreed with waiting.

Learn

The NAACP (1909)

Du Bois, Ida B. Wells and others founded the NAACP.

It fought unfair laws in court and spoke out against lynching.

Later it won Brown v. Board of Education (1954).

🃏 Check 4 of 4

The NAACP mostly fought injustice through…

Hold up 1, 2, or 3:

1️⃣ War

2️⃣ Moving west

3️⃣ Courts and newspapers

✅ Answer · Card 4 of 4

Courts and newspapers

Lawsuits and journalism.

Wrap-Up

Recap

Jim Crow
segregation laws

Plessy
“separate but equal”

Ida B. Wells
exposed lynching

NAACP
founded 1909

Wrap-Up

Exit Ticket

Name 2 ways Black men were stopped from voting.

What did Plessy v. Ferguson decide?

Washington or Du Bois: whose plan do you agree with? Why?